AN ASTRONOMICAL DIARY, OR ALMANACK,
FOR THE YEAR OF CHRISTIAN ERA,

1794:

Bing 2d after LEAP YEAR.

Calculated for the meridian of PORTSMOUTH,
New-Hampshire, lat. 43 deg. 5 min. North.

BUT WILL SERVE FOR ANY OF THE NEW-ENGLAND STATES.

Containing every thing necessary for such a work, with a variety of other useful matters.

By DANIEL SEWALL.

FATHER OF ALL ! we bow our heads to thee!

'Tis ours the voice of gratitude to raise ;

Thine to diffuse thy blessings o'er the land,

Thine to receive the incense of our praise.

Pure if it rises from the conscious heart,

With thee forever does the symbol live :

Though small for all thy love is man's return,

Thou ask'st no more than he has power to give.

PORPSMOUTH : N. Hampshire,
Printed and sold (wholesale and retail, cheap)
by JOHN MELCHER, at his Office, corner of Market-Street : Sold also by most of the shop-keepers in town and country.

EPI TAPH.

FAREWELL, vain world I've had enough of thee ;
And now, I'm careless what thou sayest of me ;
What fault thou saw'st in me, take care to shun—
There's work within thyself, that should be done :
Thy smiles I court not—not thy frowns I fear—
My cares are past—my head lies quiet here.

SUPREME COURTS in the State of VERMONT.

AT Bennington and Manchester, alternately, on the fourth Tuesday of August. At Rutland on the third Tuesday of August. At New-Fane, on the first Tuesday following the fourth Tuesday in August. At Woodstock, the second Tuesday following the fourth Tuesday in August. At Newbury, on the third Tuesday following the fourth Tuesday in August. At Addison the second Tuesday in August. At Colchester, the first Tuesday in August.

COUNTY COURTS.

At Bennington, the third Tuesday of September, and at Manchester, the third Tuesday of April. At Rutland, the third Tuesday of March and November. At New-Fane, the first Tuesday of June and the second Tuesday of November. At Woodstock, the last Tuesday of May and first Tuesday in November. At Newbury, the second Tuesday of June and December. At Addison, the first Tuesday of March and last Tuesday of September. At Colchester, on the last Tuesday in February and second Tuesday in November.

ANEGDOTES.

CARDINAL RICHLIEU one day said to M. de Lort, a celebrated Physician: "I am greyheaded, yet my beard is black—your head is black, and your beard is grey—can you account for these appearances, Doctor?" "Easily, replied De Lort, They proceed from exercise, from labor of the parts. Your Eminence's brains have labored hard—and so have my jaws."

THE late Lord Mansfield, willing to save a man that stole a watch, desired the jury to value it at "ten pence." "Ten pence (cried the prosecutor) my Lord, why the very fashion of it cost me five pounds." "O, says his Lordship, we must not hang a man for fashion's sake."

OF THE ECLIPSES, in the year 1794.

The first will be of the Sun, on the 31st day of January, at 6h. 37' in the morning, invisible.

The second will be of the Moon, February 14th, partly visible, total and nearly central.

The Moon rises at 5h. 11' totally eclipsed.

The middle of the eclipse is at 5h. 22' { app. time
End of total darkness, 6 15 } evening.
End of the eclipse, 7 21 }

The third will be of the Sun, March 1st, at 5h. in the afternoon; invisible by reason of the Moon's south latitude.

The fourth will be of the Sun, July 26th, at 20 minutes past 5 in the afternoon; invisible also by reason of the Moon's south latitude.

The fifth will be of the Moon, August 11th, visible and total; by calculation as follows:

Beginning	oh. 53'
Beginning of total darkness,	1 50	App. time morning.
Middle of the Eclipse, —	2 40
End of total darkness, —	3 30
End of the Eclipse, —	4 28
Duration of total darkness,	1 40
Duration of the Eclipse,	3 35
Digits eclipsed,	20 33	from the south side of Θ's shadow.

The sixth and last will be of the Sun, on the 25th day of August, at 7h. 40' in the morning, invisible by reason of the Moon's great North latitude.

THE planet VENUS will be morning Star 'till the 19th of March; thence evening star to the end of the year.

JANUARY,

1794

Now winter comes, in spotless white array'd ;
 (Whilst heaven's high arch cerulean shines)
 Each plain, each sky-top'd hill, and hidden mead,
 All nature in her snowy mantle shines.

In Pisces now, the sun ascending rides,
 And ends the circlet of horizon's round ;
 With feeble pow'r o'er nature's works presides,
 And sheds its scarce-felt influence on the ground :
 Whilst Boreas with ungovern'd fury roars ;
 And foaming surges lash the sandy shores.

Bid farewell to all grandeur, if envy stir within thee.

The sun once more begins his yearly round,
And travels upwards through th'etherial skies;
Nurtures with genial warmth the fertile ground,
And nature with reviving spring supplies.

Power, Wealth, and Beauty are short lived.

At night a frost that did some damage in some low ground

The fruitful herbage now invites the scythe,
And waving bents to meet the mower's sweep;
The healthy lvains in eager contest strive,
Who works the fastest, or who cuts most deep.

 Dark clouds arise, and hide the smiling scenes ;
 By winds propell'd, the gloomy tempests fly,
 And rolling thunder from afar begins.

The peach and nectarine shun the baneful blast.

The mellow orchards teem with ripen'd stores,
 The branches bend beneath a plenteous crop ;
 The careful swain with wistful eye explores
 The pendant fruit, supported by a prop.

WHAT ladies much admire transpose,
And what we do to live it shows ;
Again invert the same, and you
The name of an old goddess view.

Ye nimble wits these lines explain,
Nor let the riddle speak in vain.

An HYMN,

On the return of Rain, after a distressing drought.

I.

TO Him who forms the rain,
And drops of gentle dew,
Let ev'ry hill and plain
Their joyful praise renew :
Let youth and age their notes combine,
And ev'ry living creature join.

II.

When God, by sin constrain'd
Burns up the fruitful grounds,
Who dare impeach his hand ?
Yet who can bear his frowns ?
He stays the show'rs—all nature mourns,
And man and beast—till rain returns.

III.

O why does man provoke
The all-sustaining pow'r ?
And why beneath the stroke
His soul relent no more ?
While lowing herds, and ev'ry field
Cry in his ears, Repent and yield.

IV.

But see when mercy comes,
In show'rs of gen'rous rain,
Earth feels its genial pow'r,
The hills are cloath'd again ;
O shout His praise thro' earth abroad,—
What shall we render to our God ?

V.

Be ev'ry heart reclaim'd,
And yield to his controul,
While heav'nly love imbib'd
Flows out from soul to soul :
Thus we its praises best proclaim,
And bless a GRACIOUS FATHER's name.

YEARLY Meetings of that Friendly Society, commonly called Quakers.

THE yearly meeting at Rhode-Island, beginning at Portsmouth, is on the 5th day before the 2d 6th day of the 6th month: Composed of three quarterly meetings, which go by the name of Rhode-Island, Salem and Sandwich.—Rhode-Island quarter is held on the 5th day before the 2d 6th day of the first month, at Providence. A Machine for washing of Wheat, lately invented for mills.
IT consists of a box twelve feet long, eighteen inches wide, and six feet high—playing on the centre upon an axle, for easily delivering the contents to a drying floor.

Being filled with wheat and water, the whole is set in motion by a rake with a long handle, and teeth about fourteen inches long.

An half door at one end delivers the foul and swimming wheat, &c. and a whole door, at the other end, delivers the cleaned grain.

One thousand bushels may be washed in a day.

A drying floor may be made of laths, well planed, and nailed so close as to permit a passage for air from below, and yet not sufficiently wide to lose the wheat.
